ANRP Internship Program

- Agricultural & Natural Resources Policy (ANRP) Internship Program
 - Applications for spring 2018 in D.C. are due Friday, October 6th.
 - Applications for spring & summer 2018 in Rome, Italy are due Monday, September 18th.
 - UPDATE – We have opened up eligibility for our Rome program to include permanent residents and international students, in addition to U.S. citizens.

We have begun our recruitment efforts to identify undergraduate & graduate students within all disciplines of the university to intern in Washington, D.C. or Europe. ANRP interns are placed in specific Ag policy internships with a Congressional office or an ag-related organization. Consequently, interns in both of our programs obtain an important and rare education – an understanding of the policy process that will influence the field in which they later work.

Scholarship Application

<https://ancw.org/programs/collegiate-beef-advocacy-program/>

Application Deadline: Oct. 31, 2017

ANCW Collegiate Beef Advocacy Program was created for beef industry advocates interested in bridging the gap between the farm and the fork. This program connects the Collegiate leaders to the beef industry where they can have unlimited access to leadership, their peers, cattlemen and cattlemen and beef industry professionals. They will grow as individuals, strengthen their leadership skills and establish networks. The requirements are listed on the application. This would also be for someone who wants to pursue a career in the Agricultural Industry.
