

Additional Position Announcements

Area Extension Educator, Agricultural Economics, University of Idaho, College of Agricultural and Life Sciences. The Department of Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology (AERS) at the University of Idaho (UI) is inviting applications for an Assistant Professor position as an Area Extension Educator, 12 month, tenure track. Location: Central Extension District (Twin Falls). The Area Extension Educator will develop, conduct and coordinate the risk management and marketing extension program in Idaho. (S)he will also coordinate and manage extension education related to farmer, processor or industry risk management tools and needs, and marketing of agricultural and food products. Required Qualifications: • An earned M.S. degree from an accredited institution in Agricultural Economics or related degree is required by date of hire. • Demonstrated knowledge of Pacific Northwest agriculture. Application deadline is August 15, 2017. A full position description and application portal is the UI Employment website at <https://uidaho.peopleadmin.com/postings/18016> (Posting Number F000586P).

Farm Management Program Manager. The Department of Agricultural, Environmental, and Development Economics (AEDE) at The Ohio State University (OSU) is searching for new position as Manager for our Farm Management Program. Candidates for this position will have at least a Master's Degree in economics, applied economics or agribusiness or equivalent educ/exp, and are also required to have experience in agribusiness/farm management. Applications will be accepted through the Careers at OSU website, www.jobsatosu.com starting July 8 and running through August 6. We will begin screening application on August 6. For question on this position, please contact the AEDE Outreach Program Director, Professor Brent Sohngen, at sohngen.1@osu.edu.

Extension Agricultural Economist, Kansas Farm Management Association, Southeast. This is a joint appointment between KFMA SE and K-State Research and Extension. Kansas Farm Management Association, Southeast (KFMA SE), with offices in El Dorado, Chanute, and Ottawa, Kansas, provides a farm business analysis educational program to member farm families in a 20 county area. Principal crops are soybeans, corn, wheat and hay/forage. This is also a livestock intensive area of Kansas. Average farm size is 2,200 acres. Screening of applications will begin on August 11, 2017. Please submit a cover letter, resume, three reference letters, and all official transcripts to assure a review. The starting date is on or after September 11, 2017. Send cover letter, resume, and official transcripts; and, arrange for three letters of reference to be sent. Application material may be sent electronically to Mary Huninghake (mhuningh@ksu.edu) or may be mailed to: Mary Huninghake, Office Specialist II, K-State Research and Extension, Department of Agricultural Economics – KSU, 304 Waters Hall, 1603 Old Claflin Place, Manhattan, KS 66506-4026, (785) 532-1506 FAX: (785) 532-6925. Electronic applications are encouraged.

Open Rank Professor: Livestock Marketing and Risk Management. The Department of Agricultural Economics at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln is seeking candidates for a twelve month, tenured or tenure-leading faculty position with an appointment of 60 percent extension and 40 percent research. The incumbent is expected to develop a high-impact, nationally and internationally recognized extension and research program in the economics of livestock marketing and risk management, including, marketing of livestock under different contract specifications, outlook reports on livestock prices and markets; the use of derivatives, contracts, and insurance as risk management tools; and public policy. Requirements include a PhD in Agricultural Economics or related field at the time of hire. To view the complete position details and apply for this position, go to the UNL Employment web site: <http://employment.unl.edu>. Search for requisition number F 160094 and click on "Apply to this job". Attach a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, transcripts, and contact information for three professional references. Review of applications will begin on September 1, 2017. For more information please contact the Search Committee Chair, Cory Walters, by calling 402.472.3401 or by email at cwalters7@unl.edu

Principal Agricultural Economist, Agri-Food and Biosciences Institute (AFBI), Belfast, UK

The successful candidate will lead the Micro-modelling section of Agricultural and Food Economics, one of the main centres in the UK and Ireland for research and knowledge transfer in the field of Agri-food Economics and Rural Development. You will provide strategic leadership in the development of quantitative and qualitative economic modelling of farm businesses and households. For more detailed information and to apply, please go to www.nicsrecruitment.org.uk Alternatively, an application pack can be requested by contacting: HRConnect, PO Box 1089, The Metro Building, 6-9 Donegall Square South, Belfast, BT1 9EW. Telephone: 0800 1 300 330. Email: recruitment@hrconnect.nigov.net All requests must include your name, address and reference number IRC219388. Completed application forms must be returned to arrive not later than 12:00 noon (UK time) on Friday 21st July 2017.

Agricultural Economist. The Oklahoma Cooperative Extension Service and the OSU Department of Agricultural Economics are seeking an area agricultural economist for southwest Oklahoma. We are looking for applicants interested in joining a strong state and area team in developing and delivering timely, research-based information to farmers, ranchers and agribusiness personnel. A MS in agricultural economics or closely related field is required. The position announcement is found at: <https://okstate.csod.com/ats/careersite/JobDetails.aspx?id=2431>