Dear Friends & Colleagues:

We are proud to present the publication output of the Department of Agricultural Economics for the 1995-96 fiscal year, September 1, 1995, through August 31, 1996. These publications represent the research, teaching, and extension efforts of over 60 professional agricultural economists located at College Station and around the State at the Texas A&M Agricultural Research and Extension Centers.

The Publications List was compiled by Marilla Klima, Supervisor of the Department’s Reference Lab. The List is organized by type of publication and you will find an authors index at the end.

The literature in the List is available to the general public and to professional colleagues with mutual interests. Using the bibliographic citations, you will note that many of the publications can be found in local libraries. Instructions for ordering publications are detailed on page iii.

We hope that you will find this List useful. Your comments and suggestions are welcome.

Sincerely,

A. Gene Nelson
Professor and Head

Extension Newsletters and Electronic Network

There are four extension newsletters published in the Department of Agricultural Economics on a periodic basis. Explanations on each newsletter are listed below.

Balanced Dairying Economics is published for dairy producers. All licensed dairy producers in Texas automatically receive this publication. It is published periodically during the year as the need arises. The newsletter is used to discuss economic market outlook and policy for the dairy industry. To order the newsletter, write to Dr. Robert B. Schwart, Jr., Department of Agricultural Economics, Texas A&M University, College Station, TX 77843.

Food and Fiber Economics is a newsletter with discussions primarily devoted to current marketing and policy topics related to agricultural commodities. The articles emphasize the economic implications of ongoing market and policy developments to the Texas food and fiber system. The newsletter is prepared by extension and research economists. To order the newsletter, contact Dr. Carl Anderson, Department of Agricultural Economics, Texas A&M University, College Station, TX 77843-2124 or call (409) 845-8011.

Market-Gram is a news bulletin for County Extension Agents. The articles focus on timely agricultural marketing and policy issues relevant to County Extension Agents. The bulletin is prepared by extension economists. To order the bulletin, contact Dr. Joe Outlaw, Department of Agricultural Economics, Texas A&M University, College Station, TX 77843-2124 or call (409) 845-3062.

Texas Livestock Market Comments is published twice a month to provide timely updates of livestock market situation, to analyze pertinent USDA livestock inventory reports and to estimate their impacts on livestock markets. This newsletter is used to direct attention to potential profit/loss enterprises in various livestock sectors. There is no fee. To order, please contact Dr. Ernest E. Davis, Department of Agricultural Economics, Texas A&M University, College Station, TX 77843-2124 or call (409) 845-4351.

Western Livestock Round-Up is published to provide information on livestock supplies moving to market, crop and range conditions, price trends of livestock, feed grains and roughage; to identify factors affecting livestock markets; and to estimate their impacts. It is published once a month at a price of $24 per year. To order, please contact Dr. Ernest E. Davis, Department of Agricultural Economics, Texas A&M University, College Station, TX 77843-2124 or call (409) 845-4351.
