Potential new markets for international businesses of all sizes are opening due to globalization and information technology. Understanding international trade and cultures can be a competitive edge in the global forces shaping change in businesses and in agriculture. The CITA is open to all majors at TAMU.

Criteria:

1. You must make a grade of "C" or better in EACH course used on the CITA.
2. AGEC 452 "International Trade & Agriculture" OR AGEC 453 "International Agribusiness Marketing" is required. However, both may be taken and applied to the CITA coursework.
3. Must take an additional 12 hours of any combination of courses from the list on the reverse side of this form. (Note: Prerequisites cannot be used as course requirements for CITA. Example: A lower level COMM class is required to be able to take COMM 335.)
4. Study abroad, foreign languages, and international internships are encouraged and will be applied to the CITA as follows:
  - a. No more than 3 hours of beginning foreign language. Six hours may be used if courses are at the intermediate or higher level.
  - b. No more than 6 hours of either study abroad or international internship credit may be used.
