

Aggie REPS Fall Kickoff 2009

This year's event was a great success with over 270 people in attendance. The spotlight for the evening was on the AGECE undergraduate clubs and on opportunities for students outside the classroom. The Ag Econ Society, NAMA, and FIRE organizations all gave presentations focusing on future activities for their respective clubs. Several students also spoke about Study Abroad, Industry Internships, and Congressional Internships that they have participated in recently. The Academic Bowl teams were recognized for their 2nd and 5th place winnings in the National Championship this summer.

The REPS would like to thank the generous sponsors whose donations allowed us to have such a wonderful event. Book scholarships and many door prizes were given to students attending. Thanks also to those faculty and staff that were able to attend. We hope to see everyone again next year! Your support of the Agricultural Economics Department is greatly appreciated and we wish you all the best throughout the upcoming year.

A wide-angle photograph of a football stadium filled with spectators. The stadium's seating bowl is densely packed with fans. In the center of the field, a scoreboard displays the text "HOME OF THE 12TH MAN". Below the scoreboard, the football field is visible with players in dark jerseys and white pants. The sky is overcast. The text "We gratefully acknowledge" is overlaid in a large, white, outlined font at the top of the image.
