The Ambassadors & Mentors for Study Abroad Q&A is coming up!

After applying for the AGLS International Academic Program scholarship, this would be a good event to attend. We encourage students to come with some questions already written down or send them to us ahead of time at coals-studyabroad@ag.tamu.edu.

Snacks and beverages will be provided.

KNOW Before You Go.....

- Are you travelling internationally during winter break or spring for study abroad or just for fun?
- Are you a first time international traveler, seldom-traveled or going to a new country?
- Do you have questions about what you should take and/or what to expect?

If the answer to any of these is “YES”, we invite you to come ask questions of experienced student travelers, the AGLS Ambassadors & Mentors for Study Abroad.

Date: 9 December 2015, Wednesday
Time: 2:00 -- 4:00 p.m.
Place: AGLS 501

Please bring your top 3-5 questions and/or submit them ahead of time to: coals-studyabroad@ag.tamu.edu.

For more information, contact the mentors at coals-studyabroad@ag.tamu.edu or Cathryn Clement at cclement@ag.tamu.edu or 979-458-0820.

Please RSVP to coals-studyabroad@ag.tamu.edu by 12:00 pm on Tuesday, 8 December to help us make sure we have enough munchies for everyone. You do not need to RSVP to attend.

Submitting an AGEC Force Request

- If you need to submit a force request for any of the reasons outlined above or for other reason, you can access the force request system at – https://secureagecon.tamu.edu/formsys/form.php.
- Submitting a force request does not guarantee that you will be placed in the class, but it is your best option for getting into the desired class.
- After submitting your force request, please wait patiently. We will NOT start working on putting students in requested classes until Fall 2015 grades are posted. Force requests for Spring 2016 will not be done until January. We will contact you regarding your force request at that time.
