Assistant/Associate Professor - Consumer Economics/Agricultural Marketing, Auburn University
For information about this position and to apply, go to:
https://aufacultypositions.peopleadmin.com/postings/2698

The Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics (AAEC), Virginia Tech invites applications for a unique endowed position in agribusiness management and entrepreneurship. The position, the James A. and Renae C. Pearson Collegiate Faculty Fellow, will be a 100 percent teaching, 9-month academic-year appointment with the rank of either Collegiate Associate Professor or Collegiate Full Professor. Ph.D in Agricultural/Applied Economics, Economics, Finance, or related field required. A review of applications will begin March 15, 2018. Position is available to start August 1, 2018. Applicants need to complete an online application at https://listings.jobs.vt.edu/postings/83452 and submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, graduate transcripts, a statement of teaching philosophy, evidence of teaching effectiveness, and a list of names and contact information for three references. Direct inquiries or questions about this position to Dr. Kurt Stephenson, Search Committee Chair: Phone: (540) 231-5381; Email: kurts@vt.edu

Assistant Professor, The Department of Economics at the University of Wyoming seeks applicants for an Assistant Professor of Economics with a focus on applied microeconomics. We seek people who have the ability to develop an outstanding research program related to applied microeconomics given challenges in natural resources, environmental policy, energy, land-use change, and changing regulatory structures. Applicants are required to submit a curriculum vitae, cover letter, publication sample, and contact information for three references. Questions related to the position may be directed to the Department chair, Jason Shogren, at jramses@uwyo.edu or 307.766.5430. We will begin the interview process now.

Assistant Professor, Tenure-Track, University of Vermont, Community Development and Applied Economics. For positions description and to apply, go to: https://www.uvmjobs.com/postings/28082