GENERAL INFORMATION:

Date of Birth: September 15, 1953
Marital Status: Married, six children

EDUCATION:

B.S., Agricultural Economics, Brigham Young University, 1977

M.S., Agricultural Economics, Brigham Young University, 1978

Ph.D., Agricultural Economics, Purdue University, 1983,
Dissertation: "Optimal Choice of Fixed and Variable Interest Rate Loans for Midwest Crop-Livestock Farms: Implications for Agricultural Lenders." Purdue University, August 1983.

EXPERIENCE:Current Position

Professor, Associate Head for Graduate Programs, May 1, 1997 to present. Interim Chair of the Intercollegiate Faculty of Agribusiness and Interim Director of the Master of Agribusiness, August 15, 2012 to March 15, 2013. Professor, September 1996 to present, Associate Professor, September 1989 to August 1996, and Assistant Professor, September 1983 to August 1989, Department of Agricultural Economics, Texas A&M University. Current position is a joint teaching (80%) and research (25%) appointment in agricultural finance and administrative (25%). Teaching responsibilities currently include: AGEC 330: Financial Management in Agriculture; AGEC 431: Cases in Agribusiness Finance; AGEC 432: Rural Real Estate and Financial Analysis; AGEC 605: Rural Real Estate Appraisal and Organization; and AGEC 695: Frontiers in Agribusiness and Managerial Economics. Research interests include: improving financial decision making for agricultural businesses including farms and ranches and the ability of financial intermediaries to provide credit to agricultural businesses. As Graduate Program Advisor, I am in charge of the graduate program including advising graduate students, scheduling graduate classes, hiring and assigning graduate assistants and administering qualifying and preliminary examinations.

Past Positions and Experiences

Research Assistant, Department of Agricultural Economics, Purdue University, September 1979 to August 1983. Research responsibilities included (a) analysis of the effects of inflation on capital recovery charges and optimal replacement of tractors and combines, and (b) analysis of the effects of inflation on hog-confinement investments. Research resulted in journal and popular press publications.

Research Associate, Department of Agricultural Economics, Brigham Young University, September 1978 to August 1979. Responsible for conducting research on alternative methods of producing edible fats and oil, and making an in-depth cost study of wheat and flour, dairies and apples. Responsible for writing and monitoring research contracts for the Ezra Taft Benson Agriculture and Food Institute. Research resulted in reports for policy decisions.

Assistant Economist, Inputs and Finances in the Food and Fiber Sector Program Area, E.R.S., U.S.D.A., Summer Internship, 1977. A journal article was published from the research.

PROFESSIONAL AND SCHOLASTIC ACTIVITIES:

Honors and Awards:

- 2016. Outstanding article in the Journal of Agricultural and Applied Economics. "Mean-Variance Versus Mean-Expected Shortfall Models: An Application to Wheat Variety Selection," coauthored with Kunlapath Sukcharoen. Award presented at the SAEA Annual Meetings, Mobile, Alabama February 4-7, 2017.
- 2016. Highly Commended Paper in the 2017 Emerald Literati Network Awards for Excellence. Sukcharoen, Kunlapath, and David J. Leatham. "Dependence and Extreme Correlation among US Industry Sectors." Studies in Economics and Finance, 33(No. 1, 2016):26-49.
- Guest Professor of Huazhong Agricultural University, Peoples Republic of China, May 24, 2010 to May 23, 2013.
- 2001. T.K. Ann Outstanding Paper Award in International Trade. Yang, Jian, and David J. Leatham. "Currency Convertibility and Linkage between Chinese Official and Swap Market Exchange Rates." Contemporary Economic Policy, 19(No. 3, 2001):347-59.
- Graduate (1998), ESCOP/ACOP Leadership Development Program, a year-long program that focused on Leadership in Higher Education, Use of Teams in Higher Education, Managing Change, Strategic Thinking and Action, Values in Leadership, and Handling Crisis and Conflict (two scientists from the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station are chosen to participate in this program each year).
- Recipient of the 1988 Texas Agricultural Experiment Station Award of Excellence for Team Research (one award given annually). This award was given for research in dairy production economics.
- Edwin G. Nourse Award for doctoral dissertation (cash payment of $1,000), sponsored by the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives (first student from TAMU to win this award). Received by Ming-Che Chien. Chair of Graduate Committee: Dr. David J. Leatham
- Selected to give the Commencement Address, College of Biological and Agricultural Sciences, Brigham Young University, April 1979.

- Member of Gamma Sigma Delta (Honor Society of Agriculture).

Membership and Service in Professional Societies:

Member (1983-91), Regional Agricultural Finance Research Workgroup, NC-161 (Financing Agriculture in a Changing Environment; Macro, Market, Policy and Management). This organization represented an important forum for agricultural economists working in agricultural finance and had national participation and exposure. This was an important forum to keep in touch with agricultural finance research in progress and to participate in collaborative research with others throughout the research community. NC-161 was comprised of agricultural economists of twenty land-grant universities, Federal Reserve Banks, Economic Research Service, U.S.D.A., and other research bodies that are involved in agricultural finance research. Participants in this group covered the breadth and scope of the United States, from California to New York, and North Dakota to Texas. We met annually to coordinate research activities and keep current on issues and tools.

I served on this committee in various ways listed below, including secretary, vice-chair, and chair. As the Chair, I was responsible for the annual meeting held in St. Louis, Missouri, the annual report sent to the administrative advisor, and the publication of the proceedings from the annual meeting. As Vice-Chair and Chair of the Program Planning Committee, I arranged for Congressman Charles Stenholm (Texas), Governor Angell (Federal Reserve), Governor Marvin Duncan (Farm Credit Administration), Vance Clark (Director of the FmHA), Leslie Miller (American Bankers Association), and Paul Prentice (Consultant, Secondary Markets for Agricultural Loans) to make presentations at the annual meeting in Washington D.C. Along with either contributed papers.

- Secretary, October 1985 - September 1986.
- Vice Chair, October 1987 - September 1988.
- Chair, October 1988 - 1989.
- Chair, Program Planning Committee, 1988 Annual Meeting.
- Member, Sub-Committee, Equity Capital in Financing Agriculture, 1986-1991 (Chair, June 1988-1991).
- Member, Sub-Committee, Credit Evaluation and Risk, 1986-1991.
- Presented papers at the annual meeting.

Member (1991-96), Regional Agricultural Finance Research Workgroup, NC-207 (Regulatory, Efficiency and Management Issues Affecting Rural Financial Markets). NC-207 was a continuation of the NC-161 Research Workgroup. I helped organize this workgroup, and helped set the objectives. I was asked to present a paper at the first annual meeting on the composition of bank liabilities in a deregulated environment and its impact on agricultural lending. I served on this committee as listed below:

- Member, officers election committee, 1992.
- Member, Sub-Committee, Management Strategies Employed by Agricultural Lenders, 1991-96 (Chair, October 1994-96).
- Chair, AAEA participation committee, 1993.
- Presented papers at the annual meeting.

Member (1998-2003), Regional Agricultural Finance Research Workgroup, NC-221 (Financing Agriculture and Rural America: Issues of Policy, Structure and Technical Change). NC-221 is a continuation of the NC-207 Research Workgroup.

- Presented papers at the annual meeting.

Member (2004-present), Regional Agricultural Finance Research Workgroup, NC1014 (Agricultural and Rural Finance Markets in Transition). NC-1014 is a continuation of the NC-221 Research Workgroup.

- Presented papers at the annual meeting.

Member, American Agricultural Economics Association

- Referee of submitted manuscripts for editors of the American Journal of Agricultural Economics.
- Referee of Selected Paper Sessions at annual meetings.
- Presided over Invited Paper Session "The State of the Art in Credit Evaluation" at the 1989 annual meeting.
- Member of the Finance Committee (1994-95).
- Member of the Employment Services Committee (2004-2006).

Member, Southern Agricultural Economics Association

- Referee of submitted manuscripts for editors of the Southern Journal of Agricultural Economics, and Journal of Agricultural and Applied Economics (1993-present).
- Referee of Selected Paper Sessions at annual meetings.
- Topic chair, Agricultural Finance Selected Paper Session at annual meetings, 1993.

Member, Western Agricultural Economics Association

- Referee of submitted manuscripts for editors of the Western Journal of Agricultural Economics, and Journal of Agricultural and Resource Economics (1992-present).
- Topic chair, "Effects of Economic Development Programs on State and Rural Communities," Selected Papers Session at annual meetings, 1997.

American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers (ASFMRA)

- Member September 2018 -2020.

Referee of submitted manuscripts for editors of:

- Agricultural Finance Review
- Agribusiness: An International Journal
- Journal of Money, Credit, and Banking
- Land Economics
- North Central Journal of Agricultural Economics (Review of Agricultural Economics (1992-present))
- Journal of Agricultural Cooperation

- Member of Graduate Committee: 28 PhD (20 completed degree; 6 in progress); 35 M.S. (34 completed degree; 1 in progress); 12 M.Agr. (12 completed degree).

RESEARCH

My primary research focus is on improving financial decision making for agricultural firms. Agricultural firms must choose the optimal mix of assets (investment decisions), and the optimal mix of short-term credit, long-term credit and owner's equity to finance assets (capital structure decisions). The outcome of investment and capital structure decisions is dependent on future events; thus, time and uncertainty must be considered. Much of the work I do is in a risk/return framework where optimal decisions depend on an individual's risk/return preference.

My secondary focus (but not less important) is on improving the ability of financial intermediaries to provide credit to agricultural firms (agricultural credit). Specifically, my work in this area centers on 1) designing and evaluating financial derivatives that can be used by agricultural lenders to manage interest rate risk, 2) improving credit assessment models, and 3) assessing the impact of deregulation and structural changes on agricultural lender's ability and willingness to provide credit to agricultural firms. The two main areas of research tie together because financial decisions are very dependent on the availability of credit and loan terms.

I incorporate my research interest into the classroom and involve graduate students in my research. Most of my publications in recent years have been co-authored with graduate students. It is my policy to put doctoral students as first author (without assigning seniority). In the agricultural finance graduate course, I use recent research efforts as a foundation for teaching theory and research methods. I also require students to identify researchable issues in agricultural finance and chose appropriate research methods. Classroom projects have led to publications.

The agricultural finance graduate program at Texas A&M ranked third by agricultural economists ("Ranking M.S. and Ph.D. Graduate Programs in Agricultural Economics" Review of Agricultural Economics 16(1994):335-40.)
